You will be liable to pay all sums that are charged to the Account in respect of or resulting from all Transactions including where such Transactions are effected by telephone, mail order, internet, PIN or other Security Credentials, signature or in breach of these Conditions. - (b) Where you deny authorising us to act on an instruction, including without limitation any instruction received through the Open24 Service or, where permitted, our App, it is our responsibility to prove that the instruction was accurately authenticated, recorded, entered in the Accounts and not affected by a technical breakdown. In this regard, we may not rely solely on the fact that the instruction was authorised in accordance with the PIN or other Security Credentials or the Secure System. The use of any such Security Credentials will also be insufficient by itself to prove that you have intentionally, or because of your gross negligence, failed to adhere to these Conditions or failed to keep the aforementioned Security Credentials safe.
- (c) Notwithstanding the above, entries in the Account in respect of Transactions effected by Cash Machine or Chip enabled Terminals or using any Security Credentials associated with a Card shall be a relevant factor in evidencing of such Transactions and will be binding on you and us.
- (d) If a Cardholder denies that the Cardholder's Card and if applicable, PIN or other Security Credentials have been used to execute a Transaction or alleges that such a Transaction has been incorrectly executed, we shall show, by providing an abstract of our own internal records, that the operation was accurately recorded and entered into the Account and was neither effected nor affected by a technical breakdown or other deficiency.
- (e) The correct recording of previous and subsequent similar Transactions will be part of the evidence compiled by us as evidence the system was functioning properly.

- (f) We shall not be liable if we are unable to perform our obligations due (directly or indirectly) to the failure of any machine; data processing or transmission link or to industrial dispute or anything outside our control, or the control of our agents or subcontractors.
 - (g) Where we offer the facility of further reducing the limits on a Card provided to a Cardholder by us, you may request a change to these limits. Please see our Website for further detail.

The Principal Cardholder should carefully examine all Statements and any other Account information made available to them or accessed online and report any disputed Transactions, errors or omissions to us without undue delay.
- (c) We recommend that Account details be reviewed online or via our App on a regular basis. In the event that there is a query concerning a Transaction on your Account please contact us immediately on the contact details on our Website, via our Open24 Service (subject to registration) or our App.

We will normally consider that there has been undue delay if you fail to notify us within 30 days of a Statement or payment advice showing the relevant Transaction being made available to you. In any event, failure to notify us within 13 months of a Transaction being debited to your Account will always amount to undue delay. If there has been undue delay on your part in contacting us, we may not be able to compensate you for any loss you may have suffered. If an incorrect amount is debited or credited to your Account, we may make any necessary correcting entry on your Account without reference to you.

- (d) Subject to the liability provisions in Condition 20 below, unless you have reported to us any error or discrepancy in a Statement, within 30 days after it is made available to you, the Statement shall be deemed to have been irrevocably confirmed by you whether or not you have actually done so, to the intent that, save for any obvious error, the Statement shall as regards you thenceforth be conclusive evidence of the correctness of the entries recorded therein.
- (e) Furthermore, the failure to make any such report or confirmation within the periods mentioned above, or the making of a confirmation shall constitute a representation by you to us that the Statement is correct and shall be an agreement by you that we shall thenceforth not be liable for any loss to which you may suffer howsoever arising in relation to any entries or the balance appearing in the Statement.
- (f) We shall keep internal records for a sufficient period of time to enable operations to be traced and any errors notified to us to be rectified.

- (g) The charges which apply to your use of a Cardholder's Card are set out in our Fees Booklet, which is available on request at any of our branches and on our Website. Subject to receipt of approval from the relevant regulatory authority, we may from time to time alter such fees and charges and introduce new fees and charges, giving 30 days' notice in accordance with these Conditions. We may notify you of any changes to the fees and charges that are applicable to the services under the Payments Services Directive by giving you at least two months' notice unless we are permitted by law to give a shorter period of notice and by communicating the change to you in a Durable Medium or as may be permitted by applicable law or regulation.
- (h) Cash Advance fee – We will also charge you a Cash Advance fee if we provide credit in respect of that Cash Advance. The charges will be calculated as a percentage mark-up over the latest available euro foreign exchange reference rate issued by the European Central Bank (ECB)*.

The SMS will be sent once every month in which a customer transacts in that non-Euro currency.

An SMS will be sent to the card holder after completing the transaction, e.g. for joint accounts it will only be sent to the party making the payment or withdrawal. This SMS will be sent to the card holder's registered mobile number held by Permanent TSB which can be opted-out of by contacting Open24.

*For the majority of transactions, the percentage mark-up sent to you in the SMS message will reflect the total currency conversion charges to be paid by you. However in a limited number of instances, due to the way some transactions are processed, the amount charged to your account may be slightly higher or lower than the initial pre-authorised amount.

This information can be accessed on our Website <https://www.permanenttsb.ie/fxcalculator>

From 19 April 2021, all Personal Customers who use their Permanent TSB Debit or Credit card to complete non-Euro payment transactions within the EEA (online, at point of sale terminals or ATM cash withdrawals) will be notified by SMS of the total currency conversion charges that apply to the transaction. The charges will be calculated as a percentage mark-up over the latest available euro foreign exchange reference rate issued by the European Central Bank (ECB)*.

The SMS will be sent once every month in which a customer transacts in that non-Euro currency.

An SMS will be sent to the card holder after completing the transaction, e.g. for joint accounts it will only be sent to the party making the payment or withdrawal. This SMS will be sent to the card holder's registered mobile number held by Permanent TSB which can be opted-out of by contacting Open24.

*For the majority of transactions, the percentage mark-up sent to you in the SMS will reflect the total currency conversion charges to be paid by you. However in a limited number of instances, due to the way some transactions are processed, the amount charged to your account may be slightly higher or lower than the initial pre-authorised amount.
